

Petersons 2007

2007 started with some excitement for the Petersons. We got to watch our Boise State Broncos defeat Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl on Jan 1, 2007 (did you hear about it?) (HAHA!!! Who didn't?) Tammy's parents left on a mission at the family history center in Salt Lake City, UT. They lived near us (less than one mile) so we had to learn to survive without our go-to babysitters. They will be home in May.... We can't wait!

Here are a few updates on our growing family

Reece Christopher growing more and more everyday to be like his big brother, but with his own unique personality. This VERY curious two year old looks forward to nursery every week at church. His vocabulary is growing each day, too. He loves to talk to his Grandma and Grandpa Marshall on the phone while they are on their mission.

Selah Irene started kindergarten this year and she is learning so much. Our beautiful princess loves to ride the bus to and from school all the time. When introduced to the High School Musical movies, she can't get enough. All three kids quite often put on concerts for us.... We love watching her blossom into a wonderful young lady.

Gabriel Scott is growing up so fast, seven years old next month. First grade has been fun for Gabe. He is learning so much. He likes eating hot lunch when it is something that he prefers, if not Tammy makes his favorite "ramen noodles" and he takes it with him to school. He is a great big brother and loves to spend time with Selah and Reece.

Tammy is a great mom. She is busier than ever now with two kids in school. She works with the PTO and volunteers in Selah's class weekly. She is the Wolves leader in Cub Scouts for our ward, preparing her for when Gabe starts scouts in a little over a year. She loves her family dearly and is looking forward to a great new year.

Chris is the best dad and husband we could ask for. He comes home ready and willing to help out wherever needed. He loves to keep everyone up to date on his blog. <http://petersoninidaho.blogspot.com> Check it out often. He loves responses. He was quite the busy little elf this year putting up our Christmas lights this year. I do have to say, we have one of the nicest looking displays in the neighborhood. We all love him very much!

We celebrated our 10 year anniversary, and look forward to the next 110. (We plan to live a long time....)

We hope all is well with all of you. We hope you have a VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Love,

Chris, Tammy, Gabe, Selah, & Reece
